

November 11, 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Letter of reference for Bill Goldsberry and Gold Roofing

We have historically struggled with roofers over the years in just about every aspect of their work. They have all seemed to lack the necessary details to make them legitimate, organized, long-term, conscientious subcontractors. We have had many short-term, frustrating encounters with roofers.

Then in May of 1997 we hired Bill Goldsberry of Gold Roofing. Since then Gold Roofing has installed approximately 500 roofs for our company. He has completely re-instilled my faith in roofers. He has the knowledge and expertise to tackle any job with any material. His company has raised the bar on quality for every roofer in northern Colorado. He has the organizational skills to stay on top of schedules, employees, materials, and paperwork. He returns phone calls promptly. His staff is not only skilled but a pleasure to work with. He has a unique ability to please even the most difficult superintendent. His billings are on time and his insurance is current. He has become one of our favorite subcontractors because he is low maintenance. He doesn't require multiple phone calls to get a job done, and he is very knowledgeable and thorough in handling the problems that can arise during a roof installation. I'm proud to say that he is an important part of our team here at Hartford Homes, Inc.

If you have any further questions regarding Bill Goldsberry please don't hesitate to call.

With Best Regards,

Charlie Atwood
Vice President
Hartford Homes, Inc.